

Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology® (EPPP) Frequently Asked Questions

Current EPPP Exams
Transition to the integrated EPPP	Q: What happens to candidates who start the exam journey before the integrated EPPP is implemented, but they did not pass the current EPPP?
	A: Until the implementation of the integrated EPPP, the current EPPP (Part 1-Knowledge) and EPPP (Part 2-Skills) will continue to be available to all approved candidates. The integrated EPPP is scheduled to become operational in the fourth quarter of 2027. At that time, the EPPP (Part 1-Knowledge) and EPPP (Part 2-Skills) will no longer be available to first-time test takers. Candidates who fail the EPPP (Part 1-Knowledge) or EPPP (Part 2-Skills) before the integrated EPPP release date may retake the respective exam until March 31, 2028. Effective April 1, 2028, the EPPP (Part 1-Knowledge) and EPPP (Part 2-Skills) will be retired and will no longer be available. At that point, the integrated EPPP will be the only EPPP examination available for psychology licensure candidates in ASPPB Member Jurisdictions.
