

ASPPB Interjurisdictional Practice Certificate (IPC) QUICK GUIDE

*Read the ASPPB Mobility Program Policies and Procedures for a comprehensive look at the Mobility Program and requirements here. Note: Requirements are subject to change and are determined by the Mobility Committee.

The IPC facilitates the process for licensed psychologists to provide temporary psychological services across state lines, in states that participate in PSYPACT*, without obtaining additional licenses. Temporary psychological services can be provided up to 30 days per calendar year.

* In order to practice telepsychology under the authority of PSYPACT, the PSYPACT Commission requires that a psychologist obtains a Temporary Authorization to Practice (TAP). The IPC is required in order to obtain a TAP from the PSYPACT Commission.

Application Checklist

License

Must have a current and active psychology license, based on a doctoral degree, in at least one PSYPACT participating state. No disciplinary action listed on any psychology license.

Education

Must have a doctoral degree in psychology from an institution of higher education that was, at the time the degree was awarded or within 18 months of the time the degree was conferred: (1) accredited by the American Psychological Association, the Canadian Psychological Association, or designated as a psychology program by the Joint Designation Committee of the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards and the National Register of Health Service Psychologists.

Graduate transcripts must be sent directly to ASPPB from the institution granting the degree or its clearing house. Transcripts can be sent electronically to transcripts@asppb.org or mailed to P.O. Box 849 Tyrone, GA, 30290.

Exemption- Psychologists who have been continuously licensed (active or inactive) for 15 years to practice psychology at the independent level in one or more ASPPB member jurisdictions based on a doctoral degree in psychology conferred prior to 1/1/2000 from a regionally accredited institution may use the Certificate of Professional Qualification (CPQ) to meet the educational requirements of the IPC.*

Examination

Successful completion of the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) with a score that meets or exceeds the established ASPPB recommended passing score at the time of application.

Exemption- An applicant who has been continuously licensed (active or inactive) to practice psychology at the independent level in one or more ASPPB member jurisdictions since January 1, 1985, based on a doctoral degree in psychology from a regionally accredited institution, may meet the educational requirements of the IPC without an EPPP score.*

Renewal Requirement

Annual renewal by submission of established fee and documentation of a current and active license in a PSYPACT participating state. Failure to renew will cause the certificate to expire and the certificate holder may not practice if certificate is expired.
